5 March 1965

MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. Blake

SUBJECT: Comments for FPBC Meeting on Monday, 8 March, at 1100

TOPICS:

1. BPAM Report on Property Inventory
2. Status of Average Salary Negotiation
3. Five-year Budget and Manpower Projection
4. Discussion of Retirement Policy

COMMENTS:

--Audience participation suggested on Items
1 & 4.

--We have been in daily touch with [] on the average salary negotiations and are making very slow, difficult progress towards the development of meaningful data. From what we have seen, it appears that DD/S&T is in a favorable position compared to other offices in the Agency but has "hurt" itself in some respects by the selectivity it has shown in filling the high grade positions provided for FMSAC and ORD. Had we filled all these positions during last December with people who would retire during 1965 or early 1966, we would be in perfect posture--pure nonsense on a serious problem with which we are having a tough time developing a Directorate response.

COMMENTS Cont.

--On Item 3 - We submitted a long-range projection last year and will do so again when requested--this kind of thing is commendable and more of it should be done in Plans and Programs Staffs.
